Mr. Hanes:

Correct. Mr. Butler has not yet been named in an amended complaint nor served. It has been my desire to discuss this matter with Mr. Butler, through you, in an attempt to reach a resolution, prior to actually naming and serving your client. That said, the 4(m) deadline to serve Mr. Butler is approaching and given there has not been a settlement, my client has instructed me to move forward.

Please feel free to give me a call if you would like to discuss this matter further.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Hanes:

Since we have been unable to work towards a settlement in this matter, my client has instructed me to move forward with service. To this end, are you authorized to accept service on behalf of your client? I plan to send this out for service via process server early next week if I do not hear from you.

Best regards,
